WATERFORD

DuLays Returned—Guests at Mrs.
Moss's—Visited Old House.

The DuLays have returned from Florida where they have spent the winter. It was very cheerful to see the Lake House again and to have our guests at home again.
Mrs. Lillian Morse's over the week-end were Mr. Geo. Dun-ton, Mr. and Mrs. George Burdett and son, Mr. Fred Roy, Miss Sylvia Roy and Miss Mary, all of Portland.
Mrs. and Mr. Arthur Foss, Mrs. Angus Young and Miss Blanche Young of Boston were guests at the home of L.
R. Dunton on Sunday.

Mrs. C. Perry of Sweden was in town Monday and was a dinner guest at F. A. Morgan's.
An correspondent recently called at the home of Frank S. Brown, who lives at the foot of Poor's Hill, in the town of Sweden. This house was built one hundred years ago, and is a fine type of old New England architecture. It has a five passage front door with fan window and side porch, the old chimneys with seven fireplaces, and beautiful paneled woodwork in the rooms. The parlor wall paper has been on the wall for eighty-one years, and the colors are as bright and the paper as fresh as though hung this morning. There is a beautiful paneled dining room in this room. A week or so ago there was a picture of this wall paper in the Sunday Telegram and Mr.
Brown showed his callers the picture and told them, which gave a history of the house. Mr. Brown said that a great many people have called to see the house, and it is an interesting place.

SOUTH WATERFORD

Bills Arrived from Florida—Mills On Fast Time—Mrs. Bradbury Attended Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bell arrived in South Waterford Thursday and have opened their home on Blackguard after spending the winter months in Florida. On their way back from the South they stopped in Washington and visited in Massachusetts.
Ernest Pike is helping Harry Haynes with his farm work.

Mrs. W. C. Goodwin has recently had a new room installed in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hamlin spent Monday night in Berlin and on their return trip on Tuesday they attended Pontiac Grange at West Bethel.

Ralph Plummer had an ill turn, Thursday, but is on the gain again. Had been in the walk out in the yard some.

Mrs. M. E. Watson returned to her home, Wednesday. Dr. Watson's hired man brought her from Haverhill, Mass., by motor, where she has spent the winter.

Scissors and springs have been erected in the school yard. W. K. Hamlin and Joe Skinner did the work.

The Hamlin mill and Hill & Marr mill are going on the daylight saving time.
The schools have tried it out this past week, but have returned to standard time.

June Brown, Muriel Sloan and Herman
Holt attended the movies in Norway, Wednesday evening. This was the first time Mr. Holt had attended a "talkie."

Mrs. Riggs is slowly gaining, is able to sit up longer and take more nourishment.
Ethelyn Nason, who has been working so long at Albert Hamlin's, went home the latter part of the week, sick.

Hamlin's sister, Grace Moulton, came for the week end to help with the work.

Mrs. Carrie Kingman, who was ill with the "shingles" is better.

Ethel Monroe had a letter recently from her aunt, Mrs. Louise Wood, of West Roxbury, Mass., and she writes that Marion B. Monroe, the daughter of the late Josiah Monroe of Philadelphia, Pa., who has been so ill this past year, is on the road to recovery, is able to get up, go to the movies, sew, weave, and read.

Henry Haynes is doing work on the lots in the cemetery that have perpetual care. Our sexton, Horace Allen, has to remain at home to care for the sick.

Mrs. Annie Bradbury was in Bridg-ton, Wednesday and Thursday, and attended the Congregational State Conference. She went as delegate with Rev.
A. G. Townsend.

Mrs. Alice Wolfe and Mrs. Henrietta
Moore opened their home on Starwood Hill on Friday. They spent the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Abbott visited in North Paris and Bridgton this past week.
While in Bridgton Mr. Abbott and his son-in-law, James Leopold, drove to St.
Johnsbury, Vt., to visit creameries. They covered two hundred and sixty miles in one day.

Barbara Newell of West Milan, N. H., a niece of Ethel M. Monroe, has had an operation for appendicitis in the St. Louis Hospital in Berlin, N. H. Is coming on well. She visits in our village each summer.

Mrs. Raymond Moore of Lewiston spent the week end in her cottage "The Wedge-more."

Harry Haynes and his crew have been working on the road near East Waterford this past week. Little Walter Hamlin is a guest of her niece, Mrs. Marion Hamlin, this past week. Little Walter Hamlin is remaining with her for a time longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hamlin and Mrs. Ma-
A. Holden attended Star meeting on Friday night. Mrs. Holden, the only one attending supper. A good meeting was reported.

An addition has been built on the Wiener Cottage on the east shore of Bear Pond. It is a big improvement.
Carpenters from Bridgton have been doing the work.

It is very dry in this section. No rain only a small shower occasionally.
P. A. Monroe and sons, Frank Jr., and Richard, of Melrose, Mass., and friend, David Babcock of Wakefield, Mass., spent the week end with Mrs. A. A. Monroe, Mr. Monroe's mother. They fished, but no big catches. Frank Jr.
took a two pound lake trout from Keoka Lake. Frank Morgan of the Flat was their guide.

Lea York has had her two front rooms
re-decorated.
Waterford Creamery is having extensive repairs made. Chaplin & McAllister of Stonham are doing the carpenter work and W. E. Abbott is doing the painting.
A social dance was held in Grange Hall on Friday evening, with Andrews' Orchestra furnishing music. Another dance is to be held at the same hall on Friday,
May 24th.
Orin and Murray Brown, the electricians, are in town working. They are boarding with Fannie Green.
Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Carley of Harrison were Sunday guests of her father, W. E.
Abbott.
The Farmington relatives were week end guests of Mrs. Orrie Monroe, in her new quarters in the Smith house.
Chaplin & McAllister of Stonham have been doing work in town for Mrs. W. C.
Goodwin, Mrs. C. B. Sanborn, Mrs. Bertha Parker and Mrs. Harriet Brown.
Merle Keen has been visiting his mother
the past week.

NO. WATERFORD—ALBANY LINE
Leslie Holson brought some young stock to pasture at E. K. Shedd's, Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Fullerton will stay on their farm this season. They are buying some stock.
E. K. Shedd has Ernest Brown's horses for a few days, to work on the farm, as he can not find a team at present. Has been looking for a pair for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones called on Charles Stone and E. K. Shedd and wife, Sunday.
Dell Churchill is working on the road with his truck for Robert Hill.
Samuel Lebroke gave E. K. Shedd some very fine squashes this week. He has preserved them through the winter and they are in perfect condition.

Crystal Curtis and Lydia Shedd went to the 9-cent sale in Norway and spent the day with Mrs. June Penfold, South Paris.
Fred Record and June Penfold, with Don Brown spent the evening with Mrs.
Penfold's mother, Monday. They brought some very fine presents for her, for Mother's Day.

Calvert Fullerton bought two cows and a heifer last week, of Lydia Shedd.
The remains of George Bisbee were laid to rest in Bisbetown cemetery, Saturday morning.

Walter Lord and family attended the services and burial of Mrs. Josephine Bickford in East Stonham, Sunday.

Mrs. Lydia Shedd was surprised to see her granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Cummings, who arrived in South Paris, Saturday, from Hastings, Florida, before 4 o'clock a. m. They were done to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Arthur Cummings. They will spend the summer with his father, returning to the South in the early fall.

Mrs. Rilla Marston, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sidney Hatch, and family, in Fryeburg, has returned home.

Lee Lord received a large box of presents from his sister, Mrs. Frank Pike, this week.

Walter Lord and wife presented his mother, Mrs. Shedd, a large bag of sugar and a pair of lard, Mother's Day, also her son, Roy Lord, and wife, sent a lovely box the same day.

Bass Shoes and Moccasins
For every purpose, for every member of the family. The most important requirements for footwear are:
1st—That they be comfortable.
2nd—That they be durable.
3rd—That they be correct in style.
Because they are the lightest, most flexible and most comfortable type of footwear as is possible to build. Bass Shoes and Moccasins are the last word in comfort.
Because they are made from only the finest quality leather, Bass Shoes and Moccasins are Durable.
And because of their comfort and durability, Bass Shoes and Moccasins have been accepted by workmen and outdoor enthusiasts as the correct style.

Your car, too, will always give "demonstration performance" if you use Socony Special plus Ethyl—the only premium gasoline sold in New York and New England to which Ethyl is added.

For years Socony Special was recognized as the best pre-

Daylight Saving—Gannon Able to Work—Mrs. Perham at Hospital—Prize Speaking—County Convention.

Daylight Saving time has seemed to cause the greatest excitement during the past week. The manufacturers first adopting it, which of course naturally brought about the change of school time and other business excepting the field-sports men and the Grand Trunk railroad remain on Eastern Standard time. The Universalist Church went on Daylight Saving time last Sunday, the United Parish Church morning service remains on standard time, but the Sunday School will be held at 9:30 a. m., standard time, one hour before the preaching service. All evening services will be held on Daylight time.

The Y. P. C. E. held social and real pie supper last week, Thursday evening, in the Chapel, by the losing side of the red and blue contest. A pleasant time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Minnie Day has gone to Rangely Lake House for the summer.

Mrs. A. T. Hollis went to Lewiston, Saturday, to meet her daughter, Elizabeth Hollis, who now keeps her car to the week at Gorham, where she is attending school and comes home week ends for the remainder of the term.

Mrs. Roy Peterson, accompanied by her husband, went to St. Mary's Hospital at Lewiston, Tuesday, for treatment. Medical man of Bethel is doing the housework in her absence.

The all day meeting at the Grange Hall last Saturday, was well attended, considering the busy time of year. About sixty enjoyed the dinner together. A good lot of the winter crops attended the pictures in the afternoon, given by the General Mills Co., on scientific poultry raising, which was very interesting.

A good many points of which could be used in a practical way by poultry raisers and of course many things few would have facility for doing.

The pictures shown were taken from a large farm plant and real poultry incubator factory. There were four reels, the last being a cowboy scene on a western ranch, rounding up cattle and horses, and contained many thrilling scenes. A fifteen minute program preceded it, consisting of two piano solos by Mrs. Leah Waterhouse and two readings by Mr. Neil of Mechanic Falls, who also gave two musical readings in the forenoon meeting.

The Parent-Teacher meeting held at the schoolhouse, Monday evening, May 12, was the last meeting for the year. This was the prize speaking contest. Following is the program of it. All of them were especially good. The judges, Miss Booth, Mrs. Sadie Patch and A. T. Hollis had hard work to choose the winners. Their decision was: Alma Mikonen, 1st prize; Guyson Davis, 2nd prize; Ellen Stearns and Laina Komulainen were given honorable mention. The program was as follows:

WONDERFUL, SHE SAYS, OF SARGON

"My health steadily failed me for months. Everything I ate seemed to act like so much poison to my system, my nerves were almost at the 'breaking point' and I became so weak and run-down that at times I was really alarmed. My complexion was unhealthy-looking and a torpid liver kept me habitually constipated. I was constantly bothered with a chilly numbness in my hands and fingers due to poor circulation, my vitality was low and I simply felt wretched. Now, since I've finished the second bottle of this remarkable Sargon, I haven't a thing in the world to complain of. I have a hearty appetite with no indigestion and my gain in strength and energy is wonderful. My circulation seems normal, I sleep splendidly and feel grand!"
